

Since 1952

Great Lakes Maritime Institute

2024 Annual Dinner

FEATURING

Robert McGreevy

"The Hanna and her Sisters"

A story from the Great Storm of 1913

Sunday, April 7, 2024

2:00pm

Dossin Great Lakes Museum

- Dinner & Refreshments
- Silent & Live Auctions
- $50 per person
$90 per couple

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED BY:

MONDAY, MARCH 25

Tickets available through:

- By Credit Card, until March 20
PayPal at www.GLMI.org

- By Check. By Mail -
Great Lakes Maritime Institute
P.O. Box 1990
Dearborn MI 48131

Info: 586-777-8300

The greatest natural disaster in the history of the Great Lakes, the Storm of 1913, claimed the lives of 250 sailors and the loss of 25 vessels.

The steamer Howard M Hanna Jr. was typical of the destroyed ships with one exception, her entire crew survived.

Using the crew's eyewitness accounts, period photographs, and original artwork by Robert McGreevy, we follow the Hanna as she steams into the Perfect Storm.

www.GLMI.org