

DETROITER AGAIN IS ELECTED HEAD OF SHIPMASTERS

CAPTAIN LEE C. DeNIKE.

Delegates to the meeting of the grand lodge, International Shipmasters' association, in Port Huron last week, re-elected Captain Lee C. DeNike as grand president. During the navigation season, Captain DeNike sails a D. & C. steamer on the Detroit and Cleveland run.

WEBER LINEUP WILL COMPETE

Among the entries for the Winter Sports day skating events next Saturday and Sunday at Belle Isle will be a team of eight fancy and speed skaters included in the Weber Sports team.

All of these skaters have been winners in the past two Winter Sports day carnivals. Those who are successful will be sent to other cities to compete.

Included are Jack High and Katherine Thierry, doubles winners in the fancy skating event of 1921. Ray Fritz, winner at the recent Birmingham Winter Sports day mile championship; Vincent Bullen and George Babcock, who were prominent in high school championship races. Claire Snover, Mary Percola and Leo Dorsch also are included in the team.

BIG FINISH WINS FOR DETROIT 'Y'

Special to The Free Press.
Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 29.—Superior teamwork in the second half enabled Detroit Y. M. C. A. to defeat Grand Rapids "Y" 21 to 17, last night.

Grand Rapids held a two-point lead at the end of the first half. Both teams played a close guarding game, but in the last two minutes Detroit broke through for three field goals.

Eastwick and McDonald played strong floor games for the winners, while Smith was the leading scorer with four field goals. Zuiderveld, Huskins and Delney stood out in the Grand Rapids' defense.
