CHOSE ITS OFFICERS

DETROIT SHIPMASTERS' ASSN.
 HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

APPRECIATION OF GOOD SERVICE IS MANIFESTED.

Number of Local Vessel Owners Will Join Soon.

Detroit lodge No. 7, Shipmasters' association, yesterday afternoon chose its officers for the ensuing year, at a well-attended meeting in the rooms at Woodward and Jefferson avenues.

The new officers are: President, Capt. Alexander J. McKay; vice-presidents, Capt. W. H. McAlpine and Capt. A. J. Mahon; secretary, Capt. Leonard P. Anderhaft; financial secretary and treasurer, Capt. Timese LeMay.

President McKay announced the following appointments. Chaplain, Capt. Byron Armstrong; marshal, Capt. A. H. Shafer; warden, Capt. George Reor; sentinel, Capt. E. Stevenson.

The grand lodge meets next month have arrived at Milwaukee from Chicago. They will winter at Milwaukee.

The last lumber carrier to pass Sturgeon bay was the steamer J. W. Westcott. She was cut up by the ice, and a couple of holes punched in her bow.

Capt. William McCoy, of the steamer Norwalk, shot and killed his wife at Buffalo, and then put a bullet through his own heart. They had been separated for three years.

Capt. George H. Flood, son of Capt. G. W. Flood, of the steamer Sanilac, is dead in Chicago. He failed to recover from an operation for appendicitis. He had been master of the Sanilac and other vessels.

A new chart, in colors, of the head of Green bay, including Fox river below DePere, Wis., has just been issued and is on sale at the lake survey office, 33 Campau building, Detroit, at 15 cents per copy.

Hackman Loses His Equipage.

Timothy Fogarty, night-owl hollerman, lost almost his entire rolling stock in a fire about 11:15 o'clock last night. A coach, coupe, carriage and an express wagon were kept in a barn in the rear of the residence of Simon Cohen, 86 Lincoln avenue. No horses were kept in the barn. Cohen's loss is covered by insurance, and Fogarty's $2,000 loss was covered by but $500 insurance. The origin of the blaze is unknown.

THE NEWLY-ELECTED OFFICERS OF DETROIT SHIPMASTERS' ASSOCIATION

CAPT. TIMESE LEMAY,
 Financial Secretary and Treasurer.

CAPT. ALEX. J. MCKAY,
 President.

CAPT. A. J. MAHON,
 Second Vice-President.

in Buffalo, and Capt. M. G. McIntyre was elected delegate, with Capt. William Crosby as alternate.

Appreciation of efficient service rendered the organization seems to be reflected in some of the results. Capt. McKay, newly-elected president, enters on his seventh term in that capacity. He has been treasurer during the past year. Capt. LeMay has served in the office of treasurer on five previous occasions. Secretary Anderhaft was re-elected for a second term. Capt. McAlpine was advanced from second vice-president to that of first vice-president.

Much interest was noted at the meeting, and there is every indication of an active winter at the club rooms. Preparations for the annual ball, January 10, are actively under way.

Detroit vessel men are following the example of owners in other ports around the lakes, and at the next meeting of the association a number of well-known Detroit owners will become members of the Shipmasters' association.

CAPT. L. P. ANDERHALT,
 Secretary.

CAPT. WM. H. McALPINE,
 First Vice-President.
