

Capt. Murray G. McIntosh
Detroit Lodge No. 7
ISMA Pennant No. 767
Grand Lodge President 1907 & 1908

Murray G. McIntosh was born in Goderich, Ontario on August 5, 1864, son of Charles McIntosh, who was born near Balmoral Castle, Scotland, and sailed on the Great Lakes as master of the City of Chicago, of the Graham & Morton Transportation Co.

Captain McIntosh received his education in the common schools of Goderich, and in 1879 came to Detroit, and resided at 54 Woodward Avenue. In the spring of that year he went on the lakes aboard the Birtchby, as watchman, on this boat suffering shipwreck at Grindstone City, Lake Huron, September 3, 1879. For a season he remained at home, but in 1881 he shipped on the City of Milwaukee, when she came out new, subsequently serving as wheelsman on the City of Alpena, as second mate on the Oconto and Saranac and finally as mate on the Moran. In 1892 he became master of the Samuel F. Hodge and in 1894 sailed the James Fisk, Jr. In 1896 he took the Eber Ward, which he commanded throughout the season.
