Congratulations and good luck to the newly elected lodge officers.

Tom and Sue McMullen are sponsoring an ISMA social get-together at their home in Livonia on Saturday, January 22nd for members of the lodge, the Auxiliary and their guests. The evening's festivities begin at 6:30 PM. The meal will be a pot-luck, so please bring along a dish to pass. The McMullens will prepare the main meat dish. See the enclosed flyer for directions and additional information. if you have any questions, feel free to call the McMullens (734-462-1151).

Lodge members have been mentioned in various newspapers. Bob Ranusch appeared in the September 20, 1999 issue of the Sault. Ste. Marie Evening News, Don Erickson appeared in the November 10, 1999 issue of the Tri-City Times, and Ron Ingram appeared in the November 11, 1999 issue of the Livonia Observer & Eccentric.

Members recently in sick bay include Tom Allor, who had knee replacement surgery, and Don Erickson, who had heart bypass and valve replacement surgery. The lodge wishes both a speedy recovery

Fraternally yours,

Paul M. Jagenow

Secretary-Treasurer
