

State Captains Elected Officers of Shipmasters

Three Michigan captains were elected grand lodge officers by delegates to the International Shipmasters' Association. They named Capt. T. Howard Saunders, of Buffalo, new grand president as sessions in the Hotel Statler were concluded Thursday.

Michigan captains receiving new poses were R. C. Hogle, president of Detroit Lodge No. 7, who was made grand marshal; Fred Thode of Port Huron, grand first vice president, and A. W. Burroughs, of Marine City, became grand chaplain.

Other captains to receive posts were Wayne Pringle, of Toledo, grand second vice president; M. S. Peterson of Kenilworth, Ill., grand secretary; Robert Thompson, of Cleveland, grand treasurer; Luther Hougeland, of Cleveland, grand warden, and Ed Anderson, of Milwaukee, grand sentinel. Cleveland was selected for the 1940 convention.
